Few maintenance stencils are visible in photos of operational Sea Hurricane Mk.IIc aircraft, however a typical set of maintenance stencils has been provided. The 'W/T' stencils were not applied to the Mk.IIc and are optional.

Hawker Sea Hurricane Mk.IIc, NF700 835
 Naval Air Squadron, Royal Navy HMS Nairana, 1944

The Sea Hurricanes on HMS Nairana had their Temperate Sea camouflage over-painted in white in preparation for operating in the Atlantic. The painting was done on-board the ship, with a soft sprayed edge where the original camouflage was retained. Although some of the squadron's aircraft retained their original Sky undersides, NF700 received a full coat of white paint.
